Clarification Letter to Madaaris / Islamic Organisations / Muslim Schools

Bismihi Ta'ala

Assalaamu Alaikum wa Ramatullahi wa Barakaatuhu

Hope in Allah this note finds your respected and honoured self in good health & Deeni spirit

Alhamdulillah with the grace and mercy of Allah Ta'ala, and your tawajjuh and duas upon us, quite a few Madaaris have taken on the Imaani A'aamaal, and have started doing Imaaniyaat, as part of their classes, for 5 to 10 minutes a day.

However, other institutions have misunderstood, and thought that we want to change their syllabus. Or, the other misconception was that these Imaniyaat was going to take 45 minutes to an hour every day. So the clarification on both points is that whatever syllabus you are teaching from will remain the same, we will not be introducing any new syllabus to your Madressas or Schools, and the second thing is that this Imaniyaat only requires 5 to 10 minutes every day.

Your syllabus ,timetable, year planner, etc, everything remains the same. All we do is explain how we normally get students to speak about Allahs greatness, to make intentions, to make zikr with concentration etc, and only for 5 to 10 minutes a day. The 4 aamaal that we do, is spaced out between Monday to Thursday. So the Ustaad does one amal a day with the students, for 5 to 10 minutes.

Jazakumullah khair and a humble request for duas
